A hand-drawn diagram on lined paper depicting a coastal scene. In the upper right, a sun with rays is positioned above a lighthouse perched on a rocky cliff. The middle ground shows a wide expanse of water with several wavy lines representing ripples. In the lower center, a small boat is visible on the water. The bottom left contains handwritten text: 'A start' with a circled 'A' above it, and 'vert pan to' with a circled 'B' below it. The bottom right features a large, heavily shaded wavy line, possibly representing a wave or a stylized cloud.
